TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Pavel Voracek

It is with great pleasure that I am supplying this reference for Pavel Voracek. Pavel has been studying with me at the Birmingham Conservatoire since October 2008 and has shown himself to be a dedicated and hard-working student. He is a most thoughtful and insightful musician whose impressive technical fluency is always put to the service of the music. He is a true aristocrat at the keyboard who never produces a harsh sound; nothing is ever forced and he is able to produce an exceptionally lovely cantabile, a special quality that is all too rare with young pianists nowadays. Pavel brings considerable poise and artistry to his interpretations and always plays with the utmost conviction and sincerity. He deserves every success in his future career.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Margaret Fingerhut', written in a cursive style. Below the signature is a long, thin, slightly curved horizontal line.
